

Minds Providing Solutions...

HEALTH CARE

TRICARE Management Activity (TMA)

RGII provides program, computing and communications infrastructure design, testing, troubleshooting, technical research and analysis, and web development support to TIMPO; program support in architecture standards, information assurance, integration and interoperability, PKI and web and database support to TMI&S; IGCE of costs associated with MCSC implementation of transaction and code sets specified by HIPAA for IMT&R IM; and MCSC Technical IV&V of Change Proposals for AMO.

Navy Medicine

RGII provides program support services to NMIMC and Claimancy 18 in all areas of program and life cycle management. Recent projects include: Software Concepts Originating under "Tracking" – SCOUT; Web page development and Maintenance; Visual Studio.net software training, BlackBerry; Distance Learning; Patriot's Choice; LANDesk; 1CHCS NMCI; Safe Web Access.

New England Medical IT Services

RGII is on-site at several Navy medical facilities in New England (Newport RI, Navy Shipyard, Portsmouth NH, and Naval Air Station, Brunswick ME). conducting installation and upgrade of computer workstations, software upgrades and user training, network maintenance, and help desk services.

Navy HIV Program System (NHPS)

RGII provides program support for the tracking and communication of Navy HIV test results and treatment processes; maintenance of Data Warehouse of test results, online inquiry and summary reporting system quality assurance test support, test cases, and systems testing to ensure security and privacy requirements.

Air Force Surgeon General Policy, Plans, Program, Resources and Requirements (P3R2) Branch

RGII provides management advisory, program development, logistical and policy and procedures development support within the Information Management & Technology domain. RGII provides integration, plans, and projects for the four branches of the office; Technology, Information Assurance, Knowledge Management, and CHCS II deployment. RGII prepares and delivers issue and decision papers concerning current developments and technologies that potentially impact the operations of information systems for the Air Force.

Air Force Surgeon General Information Assurance Branch

RGII conducts research and evaluation to assist in the development of IA policy and security plans. RGII provides program, technical and managerial support to complete the program information assurance (security) technical, management and assessment support service requirements for the IA mission of the AF.

Overview

RGII is engaged in several projects in the medical field with the Federal Government, specifically with the Department of Defense.

RGII's current projects at medical facilities include:

- Strategic Planning for Information Management
- Design and Development
- IV&V
- Information Systems Security and Assurance
- On-site Maintenance of Client Server Systems

Points-of-Contact

R. Gregory Freeland
President

1997 Annapolis Exchange Parkway • Suite 210
Annapolis, MD 21401
(410) 224-3554 (office) • (410) 224-3767 (fax)
e-mail: reg.freeland@rg2.com

Visit our website at www.rg2.com